FASHIONISTAS COME OUT TO PLAY—THE ROARING TWENTIES GALA IS JUST MONTHS AWAY!

According to 1920s fashion aficionado Debbie Sessions (<http://www.vintagedancer.com/1920s/what-to-wear-roaring-twenties/>), 1920s fashion for women was all about freedom. With the passage of the 19th Amendment, women began to break away from the rigid Victorian way of life. The fashion world mirrored the new sentiment of the times with garments that allowed for much greater freedom of movement. Ladies danced the night away in silky, knee-length dresses that showed off their arms and legs, while their dance partners threw off their fathers' stuffy tailcoats in favor of tuxedos, accented with "flashy neckties, homburg hats, and gold capped walking sticks." To capture the full flavor of The Roaring Twenties, Sessions advises ladies to choose among "lavish accessories, such as a diamond tiara or feathered headband, silk shawl, feather fan, long pearl necklaces, sequins, fringe, or gold arm bangles—and you will look like a silent movie star."

KIWANIS donates $5,000 for Panda Infant Warmers

Charles Kay, Kiwanis of Onslow County; Marty Goldman, OMH Foundation Board Chair; David Baggett, Kiwanis District Governor for NC and SC; Angel Pollock, RN; Les King, Kiwanis District Chair, Education and Leadership

A big “thank you” to Kiwanis of Onslow County, for donating $5,000 to help us purchase additional new Panda Infant Warmers! These warmers help keep babies born at OMH warm and get them back into their mom’s arms faster. Thanks to their generous donation, as well as our Cannon Foundation Grant, and all the sponsors/donors at this year’s Disco Fever event, we were able to purchase 11 new Panda Infant Warmers for our Nursery and Labor & Delivery Departments! Thanks to everyone for making sure babies born at Onslow Memorial Hospital (OMH) are warm and well cared for!

Onslow County Kiwanis Club was chartered in 1984. They support many events in our community including Thanksgiving Meals for Needy Families, Boys and Girls Club of Lake Waccamaw, Christmas Cheer, and Onslow Community Outreach. They are a generous supporter of the OMH Foundation.

OLD CHICAGO

KICKS IN FOR HOSPITAL FOUNDATION EVENT

Old Chicago Pizza and Tap Room donated 10% of their receipts from 5-9 PM on Wednesday, September 30, to benefit the upcoming 2016 Roaring Twenties event, sponsored by Onslow Memorial Hospital Foundation. Thanks to the gracious generosity of General Manager Jon Thompson and his entire staff, everyone had a great evening! Even 'Al Capone' and a couple of Flapper girls showed up to make the night a fun success!

Thanks to everyone for a great night!

This year the OMH Foundation will raise funds for Project Healthy Spaces, a campaign to renovate the patient lobby and patient waiting areas at Onslow Diagnostics. Onslow Diagnostics services are an integral part of the hospital and key to providing physicians with the information they need to accurately diagnose their patients. Onslow Diagnostics is the outpatient center which provides laboratory, x-ray and pre-op services.

Project Healthy Spaces will provide new and improved seating that is covered in environmentally friendly fabrics that are easy to clean throughout the day and between patient visits, significantly reducing the risk of health-care acquired infections. In addition, the new furnishings will be designed to assist people in the transition between sitting and standing, with firmer cushions and arm rests which is especially helpful for the elderly, ill patients or patients with disabilities or injuries. A healthy, healing environment can also reduce stress and anxiety which positively affects health in a number of ways. Project Healthy Spaces will create an environment that will improve patient care.

This facility is used by all members of our community both young and old. Last year 30,120 patients used Onslow Diagnostics. With Project Healthy Spaces we can make a huge impact on the health and well being of all the members of our community!
