Ladies: Start Your Hats!

In planning ahead for our 2017 Onslow Derby event, every lady's question is likely to be: "What hat shall I wear to the Derby?" (In our January issue, we'll give equal time to fashion tips for the gents.)

First, decide what Kentucky Derby group you'd like to emulate

In the formal seated sections of the famed Churchill Downs, ladies wear elegant, wide-brimmed hats of traditional "Southern Belle" style. The hats may be decorated with flowers, feathers, ribbons and bows, or extravagant jewels. Hats worn by ladies seated here express creativity and individuality, while exuding an air of royalty or celebrity.

In the rowdier Churchill Downs Infield, hats are a bit more ... eccentric, even wild. The style is less "Southern Belle" and more Macy's Day Parade. Comedy, drama, anything (just about) goes! Themed hats, silly hats, over-the-top and 'I-can't-believe-she's-wearing-that' hats are fair game for the informal Infield.

Next, which comes first—the hat or the dress?

There are two answers here. Some say you must get the outfit first and create your hat accordingly. Others say, "Start with the showpiece!" and design around it. Derby fashion experts say the dress should be elegant yet very simple; let your dress complement your hat, not the other way around!

A third option: the fascinator

Are you a trendsetter like the royal Kate Middleton? Then toss the hat! Flaunt your very own fascinator!

Smaller than a traditional hat but just as stylish, the fascinator has become increasingly popular among Kentucky Derby attendees. The chic headpieces are made from a woven disc often topped with feathers, flowers or beads and secured by a comb or headband; a fascinator with a veil is also quite common. A cross between a hair accessory and a cocktail hat, the fascinator always sits at an angle on the head.

A fascinator can be simpler to wear than a hat, and makes quite a statement!

OMH FOUNDATION'S 9TH ANNUAL EVENT
TO SUPPORT ONSLOW MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Project 317 Bistro is our 2016-2017 fundraising campaign to renovate the kitchen and grill areas of our hospital cafeteria.

Our goal is always to serve the patient, their family members and loved ones, as well as our own important 'family'—all our hospital employees. Improving 317 Bistro will directly affect all those we serve, and those who serve us each and every day.

The kitchen and grill areas must meet the needs of a diverse population: our patients, their families and loved ones, the members of our community, and all our employees. We prepare more than 100,000 patient meals each year, and feed over 200,000 people each year.

Project 317 Bistro will provide new technology and innovative equipment, such as open air coolers, hot and cold bars, and a bigger salad bar which will allow us to provide quick "grab and go" healthy options.

By also creating a new workflow pattern and patient ordering system, our 317 Bistro will be able to make healthy and "We see that family members need to get back to their loved ones quicker. Additionally, our staff should not be stressed for time during their meal breaks. That's why we have identified certain key improvements for 317 Bistro."

delicious foods available throughout the day and night, even during our busiest hours and cafeteria "off hours."

Through implementing new technological advancements in food preparation, distribution, and safety, we can impact the health and well-being of our most important customers: patients and their families!

The New Royals Are Coming To Jacksonville!

From the creators of the A-Town A-List, comes "The New Royals," the blue-ribbon party band that's perfect for a fundraiser event as spectacular as ours!

From Classic Rock to Country, 70s Disco to 80s Pop, Motown to Hip-Hop, Ballads to Beach music, and everything in between, The New Royals cover your favorite hits from top artists with a dynamic energy that will get you up on the dance floor, or have you singing along from your seats!

Here's what one reviewer had to say about The New Royals: "Their performance was flawless....Their systems were ready to go, they came perfectly dressed and prepared.... Their energy was insane! Bouncing through the crowd, gathering guests to come onto the dance floor, encouraging people to sing along!"

With a versatile trio of lead vocalists and a backing band comprised of Atlanta's great music scene and NBC's hit show America's Got Talent, The New Royals bring the entertainment like no band before them!

Onslow Derby guests deserve the very best blue-ribbon party band, The New Royals!
